

Debbie Levy's Bios (2020)

Big Bio

Debbie Levy is the author of more than 25 books of nonfiction, fiction, and poetry for young people, including New York Times best-selling I Dissent: Ruth Bader Ginsburg Makes Her Mark, winner of the Sydney Taylor Book Award and National Jewish Book Award. Her book, This Promise of Change: One Girl's Story in the Fight for School Equality (with Jo Ann Allen Boyce), won the 2019 Boston Globe-Horn Book Award for Nonfiction and the 2020 Robert F. Sibert Honor award, and her picture book, The Key from Spain: Flory Jagoda and Her Music, was named a 2020 Sydney Taylor Honor Book. Some of Debbie's other books include Becoming RBG: Ruth Bader Ginsburg's Journey to Justice (graphic novel-style biography); We Shall Overcome: The Story of a Song, a Jane Addams Award Honor Book and Bank Street College Best Book; and The Year of Goodbyes, a Sydney Taylor Notable Book and Kirkus Reviews Best Book. A former lawyer and newspaper editor, Debbie lives in Maryland with her husband. They have two grown sons. Visit Debbie online at www.debbielevybooks.com.

Little Bio

Debbie Levy is the award-winning and New York Times best-selling author of more than twenty-five books for young people. Her most recent releases include Becoming RBG: Ruth Bader Ginsburg's Journey to Justice (graphic novel-style biography); This Promise of Change: One Girl's Story in the Fight for School Equality (with Jo Ann Allen Boyce); and a new edition of her 2010 book, The Year of Goodbyes. Visit her online at www.debbielevybooks.com.